Ideal Candidates

- live, work, or serve communities in the Greater Los Angeles Region.
- are hungry for professional leadership development.
- are committed to deepening their leadership capacity with a cohort of peers.
- are looking to expand their professional network.
- are interested in learning about regional challenges and how to address them.

Program Components

- Opening Retreat: Fellows are introduced to essential leadership tools and frameworks as they build strong relationships to support their growth throughout the program. The retreat fosters self-reflection and sets the stage for Coro’s approach to learning.
- Logic Study: Fellows are challenged to delve into the inner workings of a specific system in Los Angeles – engaging in tours, interviews, and independent research.
- Leadership Forums: Sessions led by Coro’s expert facilitators, focusing on skills for effective organizational and community leadership.
- Issue Days: Cohort-led explorations of specific civic challenges promote collaboration, relationship building, and strategic thinking.
